Michael Glasgow

Michael J. Glasgow is originally from Michigan. He holds B.A. degrees in music theory/composition, and in journalism; as well as a Master of Church Music degree, with emphases in both choral and handbell music. In addition to his full-time position at North Raleigh UMC (Raleigh, NC), Michael serves as the Bass Section Leader for the North Carolina Master Chorale and the Choral Conductor for the Tar River Orchestra & Chorus. A passionate composer with an "abundant melodic gift" (New York Concert Review), he keeps busy with commissions and his own projects, and has been honored by several contests for organ, handbell and choral compositions. Michael is proud to have served as the inaugural conductor for the annual Anthornis and Anthornis North advanced-ringing events in Minneapolis and Fargo; and to have conducted in England, Canada, and on a cruise ship in the Eastern Caribbean. He made his Carnegie Hall debut conducting his Requiem in June 2017, and has numerous international conducting engagements to his credit.

Kevin McChesney

Kevin McChesney graduated with highest honors from the University of Colorado at Boulder with a BMus in Composition and Theory. A composer and arranger of handbell music, Kevin currently has over 900 titles in print and is one of the very few musicians who makes handbells a full-time vocation. Kevin is a handbell editor for Jeffers Handbell Supply and the Ringingword Catalog. He is also co-founder of STEP, the Solo To Ensemble Project. He is Music Director of one of the premier handbell concert groups, the Pikes Ringers of Colorado Springs, and Artistic Advisor of Atlanta Concert Ringers. He is in demand throughout the handbell world as a workshop clinician and festival conductor.
